The Builders

"The Builders," is a fitting theme for the yearbook of our class. Upon entering as freshmen, we caught the fever for building very early. The drive for the construction of a Grotto was already on. Although we, as a class, did not participate in the actual building of the Grotto, we did our part. We became enthusiastic over the paper drive and watched enviously as the builders mixed cement and set the foundation. We donated to the fund to buy a statue of Our Lady. After the Grotto was completed and dedicated, there remained numerous jobs to be done. We helped to clean the pond, pull weeds, paint the fence, and fix the flag-pole base. The sidewalk in front of the main building was enlarged and general repairs were made during the years. This year it became necessary to add a new classroom to accommodate the large enrollment. It seemed too good to be true to see the lights go up on the field, and to have such a record-breaking crowd for our first night game. Now, as we prepare to leave, plans for the erection of a new building are at last becoming realities. Again, we will not be able to take part in the construction, but the fever has been caught by the other students, and the spirit of "The Builders" will live on.

CATHOLIC EDUCATION AS A BUILDER

The structure of Christian society resembles a brick wall. Individual Christians are the bricks. The unifying mortar of religion is the cement which binds them together. With blue prints provided by Holy Mother, the Church, Catholic education sets out to create a strong Christian society through strong individual members. Catholic education is a builder. It builds character. It builds moral stamina. It builds tomorrow's citizens. It builds Christians. Yes, Christians—"strong and perfect Christians and soldiers of Jesus Christ."

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

1941—Eager, yet shy; frightened, but glad; the one hundred and forty-four new Centralites, termed "Freshmen," came to take their first steps at Catholic Central. They elected class officers and from there proceeded to make their first play at Central, "The Christmas Party," a huge success. To display the dramatic talents of the Freshmen, several of them took part in the annual Amateur Show. For their enjoyment, the Freshmen were given a Christmas party so that they could get acquainted. The girls' basketball team showed exceptional ability when they captured the title of "Intramural Champs" in their very first year. The boys, too, exhibited their athletic ability when two of them had the honor of being on the school varsity. The peak of glory at Central was the erection and the completion of Our Lady's Grotto which brought the year to an end, a year that may be looked back upon as very successful.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY—Continued

1942—The Freshmen came back, and elected class officers. Francis Machnikowski brought fame to the Sophomore class when he won a state essay contest. "Clare Spends a Day Around the Clock" was the title of a mission play presented by the Sophomores. The bazaar was a social event of the year and was thoroughly enjoyed.

1943—Juniors!!! They have reached the half way point. The staff of the Hi-Lite was chosen and showed journalistic ability. Words for our basketball song were written by two Juniors. Several had leads in the Operetta, "Betty Lou." The Junior-Senior Prom was the highlight of the year.

1944—Now they have come to the end of their plans. After taking part in the different clubs, band, orchestra, and sports, they are ready to don their caps and gowns. When the members of the class gather for the last time as Seniors of Catholic Central, their spokesmen will be Eleanor Kijowski and Francis Machnikowski.

Under the able direction of Sister Mary Raphaelita, the Senior class presented on May 3 and 4 a three-act mystery comedy, "The Scarecrow Creeps." The class of 1945 is the first to have sufficient talent to afford a double cast.

Roderick Gage, unjustly accused of a crime he did not commit, arranged for a meeting of his relatives for the sole purpose of naming his heir. On a stormy night his relatives Dr. Kenneth Gage, Perry Gage, Mrs. Annabelle Gage, Miss Amelia Gage, and Norma Gage, arrived at his house. They were welcomed by Adam Throgg, the butler, who has been in Roderick's employ for five years and by Maudie, who was hired that night. In order to serve all the guests Dr. Kenneth Gage found it necessary to hire a negro cook, Aunt Zinnia Washington, and her son, T. A. After bitter arguing among the relatives concerning the Carita diamond, mysterious things began to happen. A rocking chair began rocking with no one near, long arms reached out of nowhere and began circling people's throats, and a hideous scarecrow was seen creeping through the garden. Perry and Kenneth, who were both in love with Norma, tried to solve the mystery. Soon there arose a hubbub and the mystery was solved at last, revealing that Roderick had planned every detail to uncover the real villain, Adam Throgg. T. A. proved to be the scarecrow who had done exactly as he was instructed. It ended happily with Roderick's name cleared and with the engagement of Norma and Kenneth being announced just as Roderick proclaimed them his chosen heirs.

JUNIORS

Three years have elapsed for them at Central—three years of building a foundation upon which their future depends—three years of friendships and unity of action toward a common goal: building themselves into proud and loyal Centralites.

Under the leadership of their class officers and with the co-operation of the students, they brought their junior year to a successful end.

The Hi-Lite was thrust into the eager, waiting hands of Rose Burke, Fred Farish, Jane Anderson, and Ed Lach, and we can all vouch for their ability and initiative.

The Choral Club has enrolled fifteen of them; the Tri-Opus has ninety staunch junior members; the Bi-Phy-Chem has the names of thirty-seven juniors on its honor roll.

George Wimmer and Frank Paunicka have made the Basketball Varsity, and the football squad has Eugene Lauer, Frank Paunicka and George Wimmer in its ranks.

They are all helping to build a bigger, better Central. We can depend on them to take our place as athletic and spiritual leaders of Central.

Vice President ..... Eugene Pazera
Treasurer ..... Ted Molson

SOPHOMORE B

Vice President ..... Amy Cataldi
Treasurer ..... Louis Conde

The football team had sophomore representatives: Dick Hill, Tom McDevitt, Dick Doolin, Jack DePaoli, and Jerry Enright. With the start of the basketball season the sophomores were more than eager to do their part, especially John Ratacjak, Ben Sandrick, Stan Jasinski, John Adams, and Stan Surdukowski.

The girls, not to be outdone, placed high in their athletic activities. Many of the girls reported in the cafeteria on G.A.A. initiation day.

When the sophomores hear something about the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade they feel proud to think that one of their class is an officer. Yes, Donna Rae Scott is the secretary of the C.S.M.C.

Freshmen

The Freshmen are not destructive by nature; still they are the ones who have shattered the enrollment records which have thus far existed here. On a warm September morning, one hundred and eighty-nine baffled girls and boys timidly walked into the welcoming halls of Central. After a few weeks of school, class officers were elected:

FRESHMAN A

President.....Edward Collins
Vice President.....Bernard Barnes
Treasurer.....Margaret D'Andrea
Secretary.....Mary Jean Wallace

FRESHMAN C

President.....Don Lauer
Vice President.....Ann Dougherty
Treasurer.....Marilyn Kolina
Secretary.....Jim Hoess

FRESHMAN F

President.....John Graham
Vice President.....Yvonne Mies
Treasurer.....Ida Esola
Secretary.....John Connors

FRESHMAN B

President.....Andrew Petrovich
Vice President.....Monica Javorka
Treasurer.....Ann Hensley
Secretary.....Ronald Swanson

FRESHMAN D

President.....Vince Premuda
Vice President.....Patricia Hoess
Treasurer.....Eugene Anderson
Secretary.....Nancy Prevo

The Freshmen are a cooperative group. Both at Home-Coming and at the Christmas party, they showed the enthusiasm and talent which were to contribute much to the success of the Amateur Show. On the football field and the gym floor, the same enthusiasm inspired the players and has brought them well-deserved attention.

THE MEN'S CLUB

In their most successful year to date, the Men's Club sponsored many school activities, led by such able officers as Mr. Mitchell Carris, President; Mr. Raymond Austgen, Vice President; and Mr. William Hornak, Secretary-Treasurer.

During the year they promoted the Athletic Banquet at which Paddy Driscoll of the Chicago Bears was guest speaker. They also sponsored the sale of season basketball tickets. Their supplying cars for the out of town athletic games was greatly appreciated by the teams.

On February 15, the Club, with the Bishop's consent, started a drive for funds for a new school building.

The officers wish to thank everyone for their generous co-operation throughout the year.

Other officers were:

Mr. Joseph LaMere.....Senior President
Mr. George Hornett.....Junior President

Mr. Morris Muldoon.....Soph. President
Mr. Michael Schneider.....Frosh President

MOTHERS' CLUB

During the past year, the Catholic Central Mothers' Club has contributed greatly to both the social and financial welfare of the school. The members are to be praised for the success of the shower they gave to the Sisters, also for the numerous Silver Teas which they held, and for preparing the menu for the Athletic Banquet.

Under the leadership of energetic officers, the club has made a huge success of the year. The officers responsible for this success are:

President ..... Mrs. Frank Dixon
 Secretary (financial) ..... Mrs. Jerome Dalton
 Secretary (recording) ..... Mrs. George Hornett
 Treasurer ..... Mrs. Chris Dubs

Senior Vice President ..... Mrs. Roy Terry
 Junior Vice President ..... Mrs. Fred Farish

CATHOLIC STUDENT MISSION CRUSADE

Following the familiar, bright path paved for the students of 1945 by previous Centralites, we are happy to note that good work and kind acts continued throughout the year and were very much a part of the spirit of the Catholic Student Mission Crusade.

In recalling the activities of the Crusade we remember the movie, "When Women Conquer." We also look back with great satisfaction upon the interesting speeches that were delivered, and meetings that were held under the direction of the C.S.M.C. officers:

President .....	Joseph Semancik	Secretary .....	Donna Rae Scott
Vice President.....	Dorothy Premuda	Treasurer .....	William Hornett

A Holy Hour, offered for our boys in service, was attended by every Catholic Central Student. Not to be forgotten in the least, are the generous donations of every Centralite to help care for and shelter the Missionaries and Missions.

To the officers and members we extend our sincere congratulations for your splendid work throughout the year.

HI-LITE

The advantages of a student publication in a high school are many.

These advantages were in the minds of the students who took over the work of the Hi-Lite this year.

—the Hi-Lite has been a source of delight and information for all Centralites.

This year Sister M. Dolata supervised the literary end of the publication; the senior typing classes did the stenciling under the expert directing of Sister M. Ivan.

TRI-OPUS CLUB

President .....	Herbert Smith	Corresponding Secretary.....	Phyllis Schaub
Vice President.....	Jacquelyn Filan	Recording Secretary.....	Irene Jazdyk
Treasurer .....	Thomas Halton

The primary purpose of the club is to afford opportunities for its members to develop leadership. This is accomplished through its many activities. Yearly it sponsors a semi-formal dance, freshman-sophomore and junior-senior amateur shows, a welcome party for freshmen and all new-comers, a Christmas party, and a senior luncheon. Matinee dances and night sport dances are other activities. As an innovation in this year's activities, three one-act plays directed by the students, were given for the benefit of the Commercial department.

Each year every typing pupil takes part in the National Catholic High School Typing Contest. In seven years the club has placed first once; second, twice; and third, once. The club also sends delegates to an Invitational Commerce Contest in Chicago. Last spring the bookkeeping class brought home a cup; Mary Ellen Rodman won a personality cup; and eleven typists won pins.

BI-PHY-CHEM CLUB

President .....	George Dunleavy	Treasurer .....	William Hornett
Vice President .....	Myrna Johnson	Parliamentarian .....	Francis Machnikowski
Secretary .....	Mary Lois Scheidt	Publicity .....	Rose Burke
General Chairman .....		Jerome Gross

In the spring of 1944, about fifty science students received bids to become members of the newly organized Bi-Phy-Chem Club. Despite its short existence the club has already become outstanding on the campus. Its chief aim is to further the interest of science and to give an outlet to individual experiment and research. Only students with a B average are admitted to the club which draws its membership from the biology, the chemistry, the pre-flight, and the physics classes. Affiliation has been made with the nationwide organization, Science Clubs of America.

French Latin Club

FRENCH CLUB

Le Circle de Sainte Jeanne d'Arc, the French Club, under the sponsorship of Sister M. Raphaelita, was organized January 17, 1945. Its aim is to encourage the use of French conversation and to study French customs.

OFFICERS

Seated: President, June Marshall; Vice President, Robert Lewkowski. Standing: Treasurer, Thomas McDevitt; Secretary, Phyllis Schaub.

OFFICERS

Seated: President, James Dougherty. Standing: Treasurer, Joan Ryan; Secretary, Theresa Wirtz; Censor, Lorraine Maginot; Vice President, John Vargo.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club, under the direction of Sister M. Josephita, consists of approximately fifty-one active members selected from second, third, and fourth year honor students.

The purpose is to further the interest in the Latin of the liturgy and in various phases of Roman life.

Meetings are held weekly. The programs consist of the reading in Latin of the Gospel for the coming Sunday, the viewing of slides on Roman life, and the participation in debates and similar activities.

CHORAL CLUB

The Choral Club furnished the music for the Christmas Program. A selected group had the privilege of singing at Midnight Mass in the Sisters' Chapel. First Friday Masses and the Students' Retreat were occasions for the Choral Club to use their musical talent.

BAND

Strains of snappy marches and our own school song filled the gym during the games. The students enjoyed the music furnished by the band at the Tri-Opus Benefit Program and the Washington Day Program. Father Melevage, the director of the band and orchestra, speaks highly of the musical talent in the school and is already planning the "new music room."

"IT HAPPENED TO SWEENEY"

"A SILVER LINING"

"A CLOSE SHAVE"

November 21, 1944, the Tri-Opus Club of Catholic Central High School, under the guidance of Sister M. Ivan, sponsored three one-act plays for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of new typing desks.

The first production, "It Happened to Sweeney," was a comedy about the trials of a high school athlete. He runs into trouble with certain classmates who attempt to ruin his romance and his athletic chances by tampering with his report card. Parts were carried by Bob Jensen, Gloria Dwyer, Joan Schuman, Tom Halton, Dick Smolar, and Lucy Peiffer.

"A Silver Lining" was a story concerning an elderly spinster who is almost cheated of her homestead. She is finally saved by her clever nephew with the aid of a prospector. Characters were played by Joan Chojnacki, Mel Donnelly, Kay Beiriger, Herb Smith, Jim Zimmerman, Dorothy Premuda, and Joan Zoller.

"A Close Shave" was an amusing comedy showing how a partner in an automobile partnership attempts to dispose of his rival, get his date, and keep the car. Bill Hornett, Jean Austgen, Phyl Schaub, Herman Radzwicki, and Tom Dalton ably portrayed the parts.

The plays were directed by Shirley Tilton, Margie McCarthy, Myrna Johnson, Gerry Kramer, Anita McGuire, Rita Johann, Evelyn Kritzer, Elizabeth Niksich, and Jackie Filan.

Entertainment between the plays was provided by the band under the direction of Father Melevage; by a girls' vocal group including Virginia Peifer, Rita Ryska, Jane Anderson, Veronica Sestakauckas, Margaret Oltz, Angeline Stanek, Marge Deppen, Pat Kennedy, and Myrna Johnson; and by a boys' quintet including Bob Clifton, Matt Kerger, Tom Lynch, Pete Murphy, and Bob Pastrick.

Dances

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM '44

Gliding through silvery waters with strains of romantic music, couples aboard the "Tropical Cruise" danced under the star-spangled sky reflected in the dark blue waters.

The captain's cabin stood in the center of the floor and, to the delight of everyone, an arched gangplank served as the entrance at which the couples were announced as they arrived. To set off the theme, colorful tropical scenes were painted along the walls.

Thus with this dreamy setting, the "Tropical Cruise" proved to be a delightful event for all those who sailed away into the night.

HOMECOMING DANCE

The annual Homecoming Dance and game were held on November 10, 1944. The alumni were welcomed back to Central at the dance held in the gym after the game. The theme of the dance was centered about a football field, using the ends of the gym floor as goals, and marking off the floor similar to a football field. Couples danced to music rendered by Reynold Young's orchestra. Since the alumni were scattered, the parents and students worked together to put the affair over the top.

Our Coach

Coach Thomas Gallagher

As the 1944 football season rolled around, the Warriors were without the guidance of Bob Duax who went into the service. The school was fortunate to secure a new coach, Tom Gallagher—a quiet, resourceful man who had played on the varsity at Notre Dame for three years and had two seasons of pro football with the Detroit Lions.

Tom Gallagher has marked up a splendid record for his first year at Catholic Central. He has given the Warriors their first Little Five Championship Cup and ended the season with five wins, four losses, and one tie. He has worked hard with the basketball team and made it a leading contender in the Sectional Tourney. He finished the regular season with nine wins and eight losses. So our hats are off to you, Coach Gallagher, for the splendid work you've accomplished this year.

MONOGRAM CLUB

President .....	John McDonagh	Treasurer .....	Thomas Dalton
Vice President .....	Richard LaMere	Secretary .....	Phillip McLaughlin

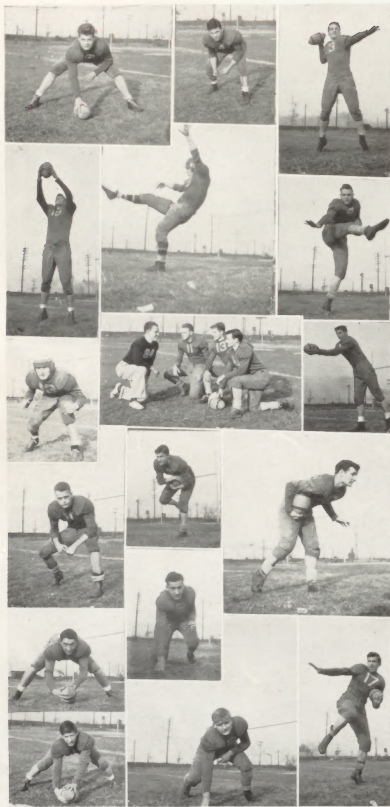

In this club we have the athletes who have led Central to its great height in sports.

The Monogram Club is one of Central's oldest and most honored organizations. Membership is open to those who excel in athletics by making the first team and thus meriting a major letter.

The men in this club are behind all athletic activities. This year they helped to make the Homecoming Dance, held November 10, 1944, a great event.

The members also sponsored the "Grade School Tournament" with the aim of finding future stars for Central.

FUTURE FOOTBALL WARRIORS

Then, too, we can't forget the boys who scrimmaged against the varsity to give them the practice they needed. The "B" team was composed of underclassmen who will be the future football stars of Catholic Central.

The team was coached by Father Durahe who is the pastor of Sacred Heart Church in East Chicago. He is to be commended highly on his work. He took this group of inexperienced boys and molded them into a well organized team.

BASKETBALL WARRIORS

As the football team shed their uniforms, six men of the football varsity, namely: Matt Kerger, Tom Halton, Duke Dalton, Frank Paunicka, George Wimmer, and Dan Orlich, joined forces with Tom Lynch, Bill Echard, Bob Pastrick, and Jim Connors to make a team of veterans from last year.

They started off the season very slowly by losing all but one game, which was Griffith, but when the new year rolled around they turned on the steam and won three in a row before being downed by Gary Roosevelt. With the 1945 season coming to an end, the Warriors got down to work and won five out of their last six games.

As the Sectional came around the Warriors played East Chicago Washington and were beaten 59 to 25.

URING MY TOUR OF THE W. B. CONKEY COMPANY

I was impressed a great deal by the friendly and co-operative atmosphere that seemed to exist among the employees. Each and everyone seemed to be smiling and to be enjoying the work he was doing. This, to me, would be very important to anyone seeking a job.

The immensity of the Conkey plant was very surprising to me. It never occurred to me before that it took so many processes to make a single book. I always thought of a book as simply being printed. I never thought of the many other actions involved in printing—typesetting, either by machine or by hand; "making-up" the page, using the printed matter and pictures; making plates of the completed copy to use for printing; putting in color; reading the copy several times during these processes for corrections; actual printing on the largest flat-bed presses in the country, on some of the largest two-color presses, and on Perfecting presses which print both sides in one action; assembling the pages into a book; cutting the three edges of the book with one machine; making the covers; putting on the covers; "pressing" the books; putting paper covers on the completed books; storing the books to be sent out on order, directly to the people through the post-office or the railroad facilities of the Conkey plant; and even the baling of waste paper to be sent back to be reprocessed into paper again.

I also realized, for the first time, the real war-time jobs the printing presses are doing today when I saw the Japanese Phrase Dictionary in the making, and when I learned that 125,000,000 books, pamphlets, manuals, targets, and bulletins is total war-production to date.

The pleasant atmosphere is carried out in the sunny cafeteria in which we were served a delightful mid-morning snack. It would make anyone feel good to have a meal in such nice surroundings.

It is a wonderful thing that the W. B. Conkey Company can conduct these tours to show high school seniors just what is going on behind the scenes of a printing plant; and to give them a chance to see what it would be like to work in such a place, if they have any desire to work for a printing company. But these tours are typical of the Conkey plant which also maintains a park and playground. The Conkey Company is always working for the betterment of the people, and especially for their own employees.

It would seem that if a person is seeking a job with pleasant surroundings and a good understanding between employee and employer, he should go to the W. B. Conkey Company which can pride itself on both.

"My Country 'tis of thee, Sweet Land of Liberty—." Thousands of boys and girls, young men and women are graduating this Spring in schools all over the country. Some look forward to more education—some will take up tools—others start careers and professions. Each is turning a page of The Book of Life . . . what will be written on the new page?

Graduates—The Book of Life is open before you. May it become a history of continued success for you, for this great Calumet Region, for the United States of America, which is you!
